As Asia’s leading knowledge economy, Singapore offers an intellectually open society with plenty of opportunities to interact and exchange ideas with people from all over the world. A strong international student community of more than 80,000 from over 120 countries adds to our unique cultural vibrancy.

What’s more, there are over 7000 multinational corporations, 60 international organisations, and more than 90,000 expatriates based here, so students can look forward to excellent professional networking opportunities as well as future job opportunities in one of the best business environments in Asia.

GAstronomic Delights

Now don’t say we didn’t warn you. The probability of falling passionately in love with Singapore over the food alone is very high. From a wide array of international and Asian flavours to delightful local specialties and with eateries in almost every corner operating round the clock, it’s easy to see why eating is considered a national pastime, if not obsession in this food paradise.

The Living Space

There is good reason why Singapore is also known as a garden city. With lush belts of greenery contributing to the cityscape, Singapore offers a comfortable living environment. The city’s hostels, homestays, private and public apartments are unrivalled for their modernity and comfort.

It is easy and inexpensive to get around Singapore on our integrated transport system of efficient air-conditioned bus services, modern Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) lines and affordable taxi services.

So for a holistic learning experience that goes beyond books and campus life, take the plunge and study in Singapore today. You’ll be more than pleasantly surprised.
An exciting city at the heart of Asia

There’s nothing like studying abroad to gain new perspectives, create fresh impressions and be inspired by what’s happening beyond your corner of the world. So what makes Singapore so refreshingly different from other countries for a Study Abroad experience?

Best of East and West

No other city offers a more alluring mix of cutting-edge infrastructure, world-class education system and dynamic cosmopolitan vibe thanks to a blend of East and West culture. Beneath the city’s towering skyscrapers and ultra-modern highways, you’ll find the rich and vibrant sights and sounds of ethnic precincts like Chinatown, Little India and Arab Street. Combine our status as a leading finance, business and education hub with our colourful multi-cultural heritage and you get a unique study programme experience, which is global, yet Asian.

Gateway to SouthEast Asia

Singapore’s excellent geographical position makes travel within the Southeast Asian region a breeze. Using Singapore as your base, explore the ancient cities of Cambodia or island-hop your way through Indonesia or Thailand. With so many budget airlines operating from Singapore’s Changi Airport, backpacking is an affordable reality.

Culture Inspiration

Stimulate your mind and infuse your soul with Singapore’s melting pot of Chinese, Malay, Indian and Eurasian history and culture. While English is widely spoken, you are also immersed in a milieu enriched by the variety of spoken vernaculars. Take the opportunity to pick up an Asian language here!

24/7 Fun in and out of the sun

All work and no play certainly makes a dull student. Thankfully, Singapore takes partying to dizzying heights with an array of themed nightclubs, multi-outlet mega clubs, live music bars, pubs and beach bars. Outdoor sports fans and sun-seekers will have a blast thanks to the year-round sunny climate. Activities such as wakeboarding, windsurfing, over-night biking excursions and dragonboat racing are readily available for the full tropical island experience.

Culture aficionados can have their pick from the perennial museum, international and local music, and art offerings. For adventure seekers, head for the Night Safari or Pulau Ubin for one-of-a-kind experiences. Whatever your leisure preferences, there’s always something new to discover on this surprising island.
